

United States Education Department

Are you looking to elevate the standard of education you offer to your students. Look no further! We are thrilled to present our International United States Global Education Accreditation program designed specifically for Education Institutions like yours.

GET IN TOUCH

-
-
-
-

Provided by

ABOUT USGE

US is on a mission to foster and promote quality education programs between governments and educational institutions worldwide with USGE.

- United States Global Education is recognized by US Education board to promote US Accreditation program for educational institutions outside US.
- At USGE we Implement & Oversee Education and Personality development as per US Education boards Norms that is ranked as best in the world for its standard of Education.
- Our rigorous standards ensure that your school meets the highest benchmarks for educational quality, ensuring that your students receive an exceptional learning experience.
- Empower your educators with access to training and professional development opportunities aligned with US teaching methodologies and best practices.

Join the exclusive pool of USGE recognised 100+ overseas schools.

- Secure Forbes ranked USGE Certificate affirming competence and education of international standards.
- US Education Board excellence Certificate for school upholding the standard of education to internationally accepted levels.
- Access to yearly seminars by a US Public educationalist offering international industry leading valuable knowledge to your institution.
- Open doors to international collaboration and exchange programs with US schools, fostering a diverse and enriching educational environment for your students.
- An assured increase in qualified enrollment of students to your institution.
- Showcase your institution's authority and become a go to name at producing world class students.
- Facilitate to access US educational resources and frameworks that are renowned for their effectiveness in fostering academic excellence and holistic development.

Transform students into 'World-class' thinkers.

Here's how US Education Board Accreditation can positively impact students:

- Students get hassle-free option to transfer to United States for further studies.
- Students get access to summer camp hosted by USGE educationalists to promote English speaking and personality development skills for today's world.
- USGE Accreditation and career counselling help boost students' profile to succeed in job interviews and internships allowing to create an easy career path.
- To promote continuous improvement top performing students in academics and co-curricular activities receive scholarships and Bursaries.
- Certificate of Participation is awarded to each participating students and online record is maintained for reference.

Elevate your teaching standards with USGE certification and industry disruptive methodologies

- A US certified USGE mentor will host a teacher-training workshop to impart a teaching methodology that only US teachers use.
- Upon training completion teachers will receive USGE certification that demonstrates their knowledge and value they hold for an institution.
- Teachers will receive certificate of participation and get direct access to a board appointed public representative that creates a network for endless opportunities.
- Through the mentorship of USGE educationalist teachers will be acquainted with international standards of the US education system.